The compact 12.1" wide notebook with cutting-edge SideShow, external auxiliary display on the LCD cover, offers high mobility with quick and easy data access convenience. Known for its strong engineering strength, ASUS once again takes the lead into the new Vista era.

■ SideShow

The W5Fe's auxiliary display is a short cut to viewing a wide range of information, including meeting schedules, phone numbers, addresses, and recent e-mail messages. This comes as a very handy tool when, for instance, one needs to take a quick look at the meeting agenda in a crowded elevator. On the entertainment front, the SideShow can be used to view photos, play music and games such as Solitaire. In addition, the SideShow can even act as the mobile navigation device and guide the way with map display

■ SideShow Display provides convenient application

- | Photo Slide Show
- | Music playback
- | Map check
- | Games (Solitaire etc.)
